STADA IT SOLUTIONS

STADA IT Solutions has been established with a goal to provide IT services to entire STADA Group Worldwide.

IT SAP Technology & Application Architect (f/m/d)

In that role, you support and manage the activities and projects in this area. The objective is continuous improvement of the SAP and Application Landscape structure. This include consulting, Enterprise & Application architecture, new implementations, updates and upgrades. Evaluate cloud, Platform and future architecture for SAP and cross applications and interfaces. From SaaS down to IaaS, depend on service and standardization.

Your responsibilities will include:

- Contribute to shape the SAP architecture vision and overall interface architecture, closely aligning the IT Strategy with the Business Strategy
- Develop, implement and apply the Enterprise Architecture capabilities, particularly, IT landscape management with focus on technology portfolio, interfaces, IT components, provider, technical stack, trend scouting
- Set, communicate and align the overarching set of architecture standards, principles and whitepapers
- Evaluate and provide advice about architectural impacts of business and IT demands.
- Project management and team lead of project / sub-project team
- You actively participate in international strategic projects and develop concepts for their goal-oriented implementation

Your qualifications:

- Successfully completed degree in economics or computer science or comparable
- At least 3 years' experience in SAP and IT architecture
- Current knowledge of the above technology clusters
- Strong presentation, moderation and documentation skills
- Strong analytical skills
- Knowledge of project management and project handling, experience in project management as an advantage
- Solution-oriented communication, high social skills and a strong ability to work in a team
- Good English language skills, German language skills are an advantage
- Willingness to travel if required.

STADA

H|F Hemofarm
STADA GROUP

STADA IT SOLUTIONS

STADA IT Solutions has been established with a goal to provide IT services to entire STADA Group Worldwide.

Place of work is Belgrade/Vršac, Serbia.

Alongside this interesting work, we offer a range of opportunities for professional and personal development as well as a working environment that enables a healthy work-life-balance. You will find comprehensive information at jobs.stada.com.

Are you interested in joining a friendly and committed team?
Then convince us with your application! Please use our online application portal to apply.